

ALPHA ETA ALLIED HEALTH HONOR SOCIETY

WILLIAM MARQUARDT STUDENT PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AWARD

The Alpha Eta National Allied Health Honor Society is soliciting nominations for students with a record of exceptional professional service. Students must be enrolled in or recently graduated from institutions that have Alpha Eta Chapters. Eligible students are Alpha Eta Honor Society members who have or will have graduated in the calendar year 2024 from a graduate program in the allied health professions. Students must demonstrate exceptional service within and beyond their program of study and the confines of their institution (community service) and establish membership in professional societies and leadership positions in those societies. The awardee will receive a $1,000 honorarium recognized at the Alpha Eta Annual Meeting in the Fall.

Each institution with an Alpha Eta Chapter can submit up to 2 nominees.

The complete nomination package includes:

- Nomination form-see attached
- Completed Service Accomplishment Form – see attached
- A copy of the nominee's resume
- A supporting statement from one of the following persons addressing how the nominee excels in the areas of service.
 - President of the nominating chapter addressing the nominee's accomplishments from the perspective of the mission and goals of the local chapter
 - Dean/administrator of the allied health unit from the perspective of the mission and goals of the academic unit
 - Faculty/advisor from the discipline focusing on both the professional and personal aspects of the nominee
